2. Role and Scope of Processing

- 2.1 The parties acknowledge that with regard to the processing of Customer Personal Data, Customer shall be the Controller and Miro shall process Customer Personal Data as a Processor on behalf of Customer.
- 2.2 Miro will process Customer Personal Data only in accordance with Customer's documented instructions and will not process Customer Personal Data for its own purposes, except as set out in this DPA or where required by applicable law(s). The Agreement, including this DPA, along with Customer's configuration of any settings or options in the Services (as Customer may be able to modify from time to time), constitute Customer's complete and final instructions to Miro regarding the Processing of Customer Personal Data, including for purposes of the Standard Contractual Clauses. Additional instructions outside the scope of such Processing instructions (if any) require prior written agreement between the parties.
- 2.3 Each party shall comply with its obligations under Applicable Privacy Law(s) in respect of any Customer Personal Data it Processes under or in connection with the Services or this DPA. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Customer is responsible for determining whether the Services are appropriate for the storage and processing of Customer Personal Data under Applicable Privacy Law(s) and for the accuracy, quality and legality of the Customer Personal Data and the means by which it acquired Customer Personal Data. Customer further agrees that it has provided notice and obtained all consents, permissions and rights necessary for Miro and its Sub-processors to lawfully process Customer Personal Data for the purposes contemplated by the Agreement (including this DPA).

2.4 Miro shall promptly notify Customer if it makes a determination that Customer's instructions infringe Applicable Privacy Law(s) (but without obligation to actively monitor Customer's compliance with Applicable Privacy Law(s)) and in such event, Miro shall not be obligated to undertake such Processing until such time as the Customer has updated its processing instructions and Miro has determined that the incidence of non-compliance has been resolved.

In such case, the parties shall discuss Customer's concerns in good faith with a view to achieving a commercially reasonable resolution. If the parties cannot reach such resolution, Miro shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to either not appoint the disputed Subprocessor, or permit Customer to suspend or terminate the applicable Order and/or the Agreement. These procedures are Customer's exclusive remedy and Miro's entire liability for resolving Customer's objections to Miro's appointment of Subprocessor's under this DPA.

4. Cooperation

- 4.1 Miro shall reasonably cooperate with Customer to enable Customer to respond to any requests, complaints or other communications from data subjects and regulatory or judicial bodies relating to the processing of Customer Personal Data, including requests from data subjects seeking to exercise their rights under Applicable Privacy Law(s). In the event that any such request, complaint or communication is made directly to Miro, Miro shall, once it has identified the request is from or related to a data subject for whom the Customer is responsible, pass this onto Customer and shall not respond to such communication without Customer's express authorization (unless required to do so in order to comply with applicable law(s)).

- 4.3 Taking into account the nature of the processing, Customer agrees that it is unlikely that Miro would become aware that Customer Personal Data transferred under the Standard Contractual Clauses is inaccurate or outdated. Nonetheless, if Miro becomes aware that Customer Personal Data transferred under the Standard Contractual Clauses is inaccurate or outdated, it will inform Customer without undue delay. Miro will reasonably cooperate with Customer to erase or rectify inaccurate or outdated Customer Personal Data transferred under the Standard Contractual Clauses.

In the event of a Security Incident, Miro shall inform Customer without undue delay and will provide written details of the Security Incident to Customer, including the type of data affected and the identity of affected person(s), once such information becomes known or available to Miro. Miro shall, to the extent possible, provide timely information and cooperation to Customer to allow Customer to fulfil its data breach reporting obligations under Applicable Privacy Law(s) and shall take reasonable steps to remedy or mitigate the effects of the Security Incident. The obligations herein shall not apply to Security Incidents that are caused by the Customer or its users.

7. Security Reports & Inspections

- 7.1 Upon request, Miro shall provide copies of any certifications, audit report summaries and/or other relevant documentation it holds, where reasonably required by Customer to verify Miro's compliance with this DPA.
- 7.2 While it is the parties' intention ordinarily to rely on Miro's obligations set forth in Section 7.1 to verify Miro's compliance with this DPA, following a confirmed Security Incident or where a data protection authority requires it, Customer may provide Miro with thirty (30) days' prior written notice requesting that a third-party conduct an audit of Miro's operations and facilities ("Audit"); provided that (i) any Audit shall be conducted at Customer's expense; (ii) the parties shall mutually agree upon the scope, timing and duration of the Audit; (iii) the Audit shall not unreasonably impact Miro's regular operations.

8.4 If Miro adopts an alternative lawful data export mechanism for the transfer of personal data not described in this DPA ("Alternative Transfer Mechanism"), the Alternative Transfer Mechanism shall apply instead of any applicable transfer mechanism described in this DPA (but only to the extent such Alternative Transfer Mechanism complies with EU/UK Data Protection Law and extends to the territories to which the relevant Customer Personal Data is transferred).

This requirement shall not apply to the extent that Miro is required by any applicable law to retain some or all of the Customer Personal Data, or to Customer Personal Data archived on back-up systems, which data Miro shall isolate and protect from any further processing except to the extent required by such law.
